

Live Long Live Well – Colloquium Series 2017

The Institute for Health & Ageing (IHA) is pleased to present talks from colleagues and collaborators working across a range of disciplines relative to the pursuit of healthy and active ageing. Presentations will be followed by an opportunity for discussion.

March to June 2017

| Date | Presenter | Title |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Wednesday 1 March 2017 2-3pm | Professor Cassandra Szoek Professorial Fellow, IHA, Director Healthy Ageing Program, University of Melbourne | Predictive Factors for Verbal Memory Performance Over Decades of Ageing |
| Wednesday 19 April 2017 2-3pm | Professor Ego Seeman Professorial Fellow, Institute for Health and Ageing | The Seven Deadly Sins of Imaging Bone Morphology |
| Wednesday 17 May 2017 2-3pm | Professor Jim Sallis Professorial Fellow, Institute for Health & Ageing, Emeritus Professor University of California San Diego | The importance of built environments for physical activity and obesity across the life span: US studies |
| Wednesday 7 June 2017 2-3pm | Xianwen Shang PhD student University of Melbourne | Protein intakes from different sources and cardiometabolic disorders in community-dwelling Australian adults |

ACU colleagues are encouraged to dial in from a campus A/V meeting room, or by using Polycom Realpresence on their computer desktop.

A/V room bookings can be made via Servicedesk@acu.edu.au or by calling 07 3623 7272

The Servicedesk can also assist with Polycom installation on your PC or laptop.

When:

2-3pm AEDT, first Wednesday of the month

Where:

Rm 6.02, Level 6, 215 Spring Street Melbourne

Audio-visual/teleconference:

By request to IHA@acu.edu.au / 03 9230 8170

Colleagues outside the university may participate by teleconference, or by attending in person at Level 6, 215 Spring Street in Melbourne.

Please contact IHA as per the details below to obtain dial-in details for joining the colloquium via audio-visual link from another ACU location, or via teleconference. Please note this presentation is scheduled on Melbourne time.

Register your interest in attending with IHA@acu.edu.au / 03 9230 8170